

Free and Reduced Price Lunch Information

Any student who was eligible for the free or reduced priced lunch program last year is automatically eligible for the first thirty days of the next school year. Each new school year, families must verify eligibility. Please send in your new paperwork to the main office as soon as possible so that no lunches are missed. Forms are available in any school office or at the district office. Students may apply at any time during the school year.

To find out if you are eligible, check out this table showing income levels for different size households.
