Anacortes	4+	Colette Arvidson, 360-299-2905, anacorteskarate@gmail.com	Soo Bahk Do is a defensive martial art with a history that dates back over 2000 years. It is both a hard and soft style of martial art. The internationally standardized curriculum teaches physical techniques including: basics (hand and foot techniques), forms, self-defense, and non-contact sparring applications. All techniques emphasize use of the hip for effectiveness and safety. The physical instruction and activity are integrated with the teaching of Korean terminology, history and philosophy. A separate course, Wu style Tai Chi is also taught by Andy Arvidson, at a rate of $10 per hour. Tai-Chi is the national exercise of China, and consists of gentle, slow movements designed to increase flexibility and coordination, reduce stress and improve circulation. This class will focus on the foundational “chi” (life-force) enhancing exercises, plus the Long Form, a series of 108 flowing movements. It is said “Tai-chi can be used by people of any age to develop energy and rejuvenate the body.” (The Tao of Tai-chi Chuan – Way to Rejuvenation)	Modification of technique can be made to accommodate most physical and mental challenges.	www.anacorteskarate.com

Basic Beginnings: Camp Friendship	Kirkland	5-12	Dan Nansel, 425-220-1299, dan@basicbeginnings.net	To gain confidence we are offering a variety of Camp Friendship to build on an individual child's social skill level. Through fun games and interactive play with 1:1 typical peer models, we will provide the opportunity for children to build meaningful relationships while expanding his or her social skills. We believe that the more social skills children develop, the more confident they will be in handling a variety of every day social situations in his or her future. Check website for additional details and times.		http://basicbeginnings.net/
Basic Beginnings: Next Steps	Kirkland	18-25	Dan Nansel, 425-220-1299, dan@basicbeginnings.net	Next Steps caters to young adults aged 18-25. Next Steps is an amazing program where we help the young adults of the group by facilitating their decisions rather than making decisions for them. The young adults will decide where they are going for the evening, what they will be doing, what they will be eating and even how they will be getting to their destinations. Next Steps teaches independence, leadership and cooperation through providing weekly opportunities for recreation with same age peers.  Groups run Thursday evenings from 4:30pm-7:30pm		http://basicbeginnings.net/
Basic Beginnings: Teens Rock	Kirkland	12-18	Dan Nansel, 425-220-1299, dan@basicbeginnings.net	TEENS ROCK is a program to help teens gain independence by building basic life time skills.
